

PACKING FOR CAMP

DRESS CODE: While camping is of its nature informal, Christian modesty should be taken into account when packing for your child's stay. Clothing should not be excessively revealing, as inappropriate clothing will not be permitted to be worn. Inappropriate clothing would include, but not be limited to: open back tops, low-cut tops; skin-tight clothing; half shirts; two piece bathing suits, tank tops with less than two-fingers width straps; shorts or skirts shorter than a few inches above the knee; and low-cut waist-lines. No more one earring on each ear, for girls— none for boys. No other piercing are permitted on another other part of the body. This policy will strictly enforced.

Dress for daily church services is casual but long pants and covered shoulders are required. For divine Liturgies, boys are expected to wear a collared shirt with casual slacks, and girls should wear a skirt and blouse or a dress.

PACKING LIST

We do not recommend bringing expensive or name brand clothing or other expensive items to camp. Cabin storage space is limited, so each camper should bring no more than two pieces of luggage.
